

Mandating a broadcast flag is taking away my rights to time-shift television content so that I can watch it at a different time. This is a huge grab of my rights that should not be allowed by a simple FCC rule. Please make sure that this does not pass.